Dear Coaches and Coordinators!

The excitement is mounting! There are a million things to do and three weeks to do them! Enjoy how amazing your team is! Help them plan the last few weeks - get the paperwork lined up - plan a dress rehearsal for the parents! Don't sweat the little stuff! Make sure you treat your team to a few little fun interludes too! And tell them how proud you are of the work they have done!

Three things:

1.) The Division 1,2,3 Eastern Region

Tournament schedule is released. The schedule is posted at www.ncome.org. Problem 5 has enough division 1 teams that we have split the competitions into 1A and 1B. Be sure to note in which competition your team is scheduled. It is difficult to schedule this tournament and allow the appropriate time between the Long Term Competition and the Spontaneous Competition for each team. All schedule requests have been accommodated to the best of our ability. Please let me know immediately if you have questions about the schedule.

2.) Be sure to check the problem CLARIFICATIONS published at www.odysseyofthemind.com. It is important that your team knows these clarifications so they can make adjustments to their solution if necessary.

3.) Get your volunteers to register with Signup Genius (use the Volunteer link at www.ncome.org). Those already registered will have first choice of time slots when the time slot registration link is sent out this weekend. We NEED your volunteers!

By the way, the Tournament Preparation Webinar replay is posted at www.ncome.org.

We are looking forward to seeing your team on March 4th!
