

NC Odyssey of the Mind, Eastern Region

2019 Judges Training Schedule

Saturday, February 16, 2019
NC Central University
Alfonso Elder Student Union
1801 Fayetteville St, Durham, NC 27707

Objectives:

Understand Odyssey of the Mind's purpose and process
Learn the different judging roles and your specific role on your judging team
Understand the area or problem you are judging
Prepare so that Odyssey of the Mind teams leaving the tournament feel they have been scored by capable, caring and knowledgeable judges.

Schedule for the day:

- 8:00 Judges registration and assignment in Student Union Foyer, coffee and bagels
- 8:15-8:35 Orientation to Odyssey of the Mind and Judging
- 8:35-8:45 Introductions of Problem Captains (PCs) and staff
- 8:45-11:45 All Judges: Meet with Problem Captains (PCs)
- Spontaneous judges meet with Ann Ross/Zoe Burnet (walk to School of Education)
 - Long Term judges meet with your PC (P1 with Randy Burton (Mary Townes), P2 with Barry Groner (Mary Townes), P3 with Marj Moe (Mary Townes), P4 with Chris Bonin (Miller-Morgan), P5 with Suzanne Ladd (Student Union))
- Spontaneous: 11:15 – Review Primary Spontaneous problem
11:30 Disperse and set up rooms
11:45 Primary Spontaneous Tournament (coach may watch)
12:05-12:45 Lunch back with PC
12:45-3:15 Debrief, Practice, Take Certification Test!
- Long Term: 12:00-12:30 Lunch with PC
12:30 Review Primary Long Term problem and procedures
12:45 Disperse and set up rooms, stage first team at 1:00
1:15 Long Term Primary Tournament
1:45-3:45 Debrief, Training, Take Certification Test!
- 12:15-1:30 Score Checkers: Meet with Score Room Captain, Erin Holmes in Student Union 136.

Please note that you must be certified to judge at an Odyssey of the Mind Tournament!

The Tournament is Saturday, March 2nd HERE at NC Central!!!

Note: SAVE THE DATE! Saturday, April 6th is the NC State Tournament. The tournament will be hosted by East Carolina University (ECU). There is an honorarium for judging at the state tournament. (You can car-pool!) You'll see amazing teams and we'd love your help!