

Subject: NCOME Div I, II, and III Tournament Schedule Released & Clarification Deadline Coming Up
Date: February 11, 2019 at 9:21 AM

Hello Odyssey of the Mind Coaches and Coordinators! The team schedules for our NCOM Eastern Region Division I, II, and III Tournament on March 2 are now available at ncome.org. Documents coming soon include: (1) Competition Map; (2) NCOME 2018 Tournament Competition Rules; and (3) Tournament Day Info. These documents will be posted to ncome.org and e-mailed to you later this week.

Problems 2, 3, and 5 have enough Division I teams that we had to split the competitions into Divisions IA and IB. Be sure to note in which competition your team is scheduled.

It is difficult to schedule this tournament and allow the appropriate time between the Long Term Competition and the Spontaneous Competition for each team. All schedule requests have been accommodated to the best of our ability. Please let Tom Hansen know immediately if you have questions about the schedule.

Also, please remember that the deadline for submitting team-specific clarification requests is this Friday, February 15. These team-specific clarifications are kept private so you do not need to worry about another team getting the benefit of your ideas. Click HERE for a brief handout explaining the process for checking general clarifications and submitting requests for team-specific clarifications.

We are looking forward to seeing your teams on March 2!
